

In Memory of

Vickie

Vickie Wilson was a very dear friend of mine and was lost during a struggle with Cancer on August 18th, 2011.

Vickie was one of the most vibrant and animated people I have ever known, very athletic, active in many venues, loved her family deeply and loved dogs in general.

She shall be deeply missed by her husband Trevor, her devoted dog Lucky and so many friends and acquaintances.

God Speed to one special woman!
